

Remember to use your own words to answer the questions to show that you understand.

1. When Britain found it was in debt after the Seven Years War what was one way they intended to use to pay that debt off? P171
2. Was this method successful from what you have learned? Why or why not?
3. In your own words explain what "No taxation without representation" means.
4. In point form explain who George Washington is.
Example: • he was a soldier
5. The 'Declaration of Independence' was made in 1776. What was this declaration?

6. Which war ended in 1783?
 - a. What caused this war?
 - b. Who was involved in it?
 - c. What were three consequences or effects of this war?
7. Who are the refugees referred to on p.174 of your text?
8. Where were the refugees headed? Why?
9. What were some of the problems the Loyalists faced when they moved to the colony of Nova Scotia? Find them in the stories of pages 175-178. (5 or more)
Example: • loss of property and belongings
10. What is a genealogist? P179
11. What is the percentage of British people living in Québec in 1790?
P181

12. The Loyalists wanted British laws in Québec. Did they have the right to demand that when this percentage of the population was British?
Why or why not?
P184

13. Compare the Quebec Act of 1774 and the Constitutional Act of 1791 by comparing the maps on pages 172 and 186.

What is the same?

What is different?

14. How did the changes in the way the land was divided affect the people who lived there?

The British:

The Loyalists:

The Patriots:

The Canadiens:

The Mi'kmaq:

The Haudenosaunee:

15. Name two impacts on the First Nations people in Québec and in Nova Scotia.
P 182-183

16. Were the First Nations people treated fairly when faced with these changes? Why or why not?
17. List some of the changes made in Nova Scotia because of the arrival of the Loyalists there and the demands they made. P185
18. List some of the changes made in Québec because of the arrival of the Loyalists there.
19. What is representative government?
20. How is that different from responsible government?